B.C. JOB FAIRS POSTPONED

Site C job fairs that were planned to have been taking place on July-28-30 in Tumbler Ridge, Fort St. John, and Chetwynd have been postponed until September. The move comes five days after a disturbance was created by an individual at a Site C job fair in Dawson Creek, and another man was shot and killed outside near the event.

In a release posted on the Site C website BC Hydro will be reviewing their policies and procedures for open events. It's noted that the intent is to ensure the safety of staff and the public.

Hydro says new information on the postponed events will be provided "as soon as possible."

Art of communication. A shopkeeper worried when a business like his opened next door with a huge sign which read BEST DEALS. He was horrified when a competitor opened on his right, with an even larger sign, reading LOWEST PRICES. The shopkeeper got an idea. He put the highest sign over his shop. It read... MAIN ENTRANCE.

Cheesy Rice Balls

Preparation time: 15 minutes

Total time: 45 minutes

Servings: 6 balls

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp Great Value extra virgin olive oil
- 1/4 cup plain bread crumbs
- 2 cups cooked and cooled arborio or regular long-grain white rice
- 1 egg, lightly beaten
- 1/2 cup finely grated parmesan cheese
- 1/2 tsp salt

Directions

Myra was the church gossip.
Though many disliked this, they feared her enough to keep silent.
But she made a mistake when she accused Bob of being a drunk after she saw his truck parked in front of the town's bar, saying, "Anyone seeing it knows what you were doing."

Bob stared at her for a moment and walked away. He didn't explain, defend or deny. He said nothing.
But that evening, Bob parked his pickup in front of Myra's house and left it there all night.
