MAYOR PROCLAIMS CHETWYND RODEO WEEK JUNE 10-16

Shelley and Shelby Currier met up with Mayor Merlin Nichols to help proclaim Chetwynd's first Rodeo week in 16 years, taking place this week, June 10-16th 2018.

Chetwynd's rodeo will be held this upcoming weekend, June 16 and 17th at Pine Valley Exhibition Park. The rodeo is sanctioned with the BCRA (BC Rodeo Association).

This week is being recognized as Chetwynd Rodeo Week because rodeos are part of the "Wild West" heritage, bringing entertainment to families and the community. Chetwynd's rodeo has been part of the community for 51 years and incorporates all of British Columbia and North West Alberta, creating one of the best rodeos in the region.

The event is organized and run by volunteers and sponsored by local businesses and organizations. There will be many great events to watch, a beer garden, concession and a dance taking place on Saturday night, so make sure you get to the PVEP this weekend to catch some of the action.
