Cabin Fever III Showcases Mardi Gras Exhibit at Art Gallery

This past Friday, February 8th, the Chetwynd Community Arts Council held their 3rd annual "Cabin Fever" exhibit at the gallery, this time focusing on the theme "Mardi Gras".

The gallery was brightly decorated and guests were invited to enjoy some hors d'oeuvres and a glass of wine. There were more than 30 pieces from local artists showing off their skills with some great quality art pieces.

The art gallery is open weekdays! So if you get a chance, go check out these great pieces before they're gone.

DISTRICT OF CHETWYND 2019 BOULEVARD TREE REMOVAL TENDER

The District of Chetwynd will commence a boulevard tree replacement program in spring 2019.

Part 1: The District of Chetwynd is asking for proposals to cut down approximately 36 mature poplar trees, cut the fallen trees to 10 foot lengths, and clean up the small debris and limbs. Submissions should include costs to cut the trees into 10 foot pieces and move the pieces and debris to a designated area for future disposal.

Part 2: The District of Chetwynd is also seeking proposals to grind approximately 36 stumps to approximately 6 inches (150 mm) below grade.

Plans showing tree removal/grinding locations can be viewed at the District Office located at 5400 Hospital Road.

- All signage and personal protective equipment must be supplied by the proponent.
- The proposals could include Part 1 and/or Part 2.
- Site visit is mandatory for each proponent.

Proposals must be received at the District office located at 5400 Hospital Road no later than February 28, 2019 at 2:00 PM

Remembering Fred Jarvis

The Peace River Regional District dedicated a page on the January 10, 2019 Board meeting agenda to the late Fred Jarvis.

Delegations

1. North River Midstream external affairs officer, Jay Morrison, updated the Board on the Brookfield, North River and Tupper West Expansion projects in the Region.
2. Steelhead LNG Vice President Corey Goulet, presented the Kwispaa LNG project, a liquefaction, storage and export facility at Sarita Bay on Vancouver Island, and a separate pipeline project which is proposed to begin in Chetwynd and end at Sarita Bay.
3. Jane Butters and Mona Lowther introduced the Tumbler Ridge Mountain Bike Association to the Board. The newly founded Tumbler Ridge non-profit society vision is to create a world-class mountain biking mecca in Tumbler Ridge and the Peace Region.
4. Catie O'Neal and Kiel Giddens from TransCanada updated the Board on the Coastal GasLink Project, advising that all necessary regulatory permits have been obtained for the project, $2.8 billion worth of pipeline construction contracts have been awarded, and 20 project and community agreements with Indigenous bands have been signed.
5. Aaron Cahill and Bethany Ladd presented an overview of the UBC Energy and Environment Research Initiative. This is a research collaborative based out of UBC Vancouver whose mission is to better understand the environmental impacts of shale gas development, focusing on fugitive gas migration.

PRRD Board Requests an Alternative UBCM Meeting Location

The Regional Board will write a letter to Mayor Jack Crompton of Whistler, BC to express disappointment in his letter addressed to Canadian Natural Resources Ltd. regarding climate change. A second letter will be sent to UBCM requesting that Whistler and Victoria not be considered as viable UBCM conference host communities, as the locations are not central for those travelling from other regions in BC.

ALR Applications

1. The Regional Board supported the Trevor Kersey ALR subdivision application to proceed to the Agricultural Land Commission. The applicant is applying to subdivide a 76-acre parcel located near Taylor BC in Area D into four residential lots ranging in size from 7 to 50 acres.
2. The Board refused the Mark Woloschuk ALR subdivision application to proceed to the ALC, as the proposal is not consistent with the OCP which states that non-agricultural uses should be directed away from existing agricultural areas.
3. The Regional Board supported the McNary ALR subdivision application to proceed to the Agricultural Land Commission. The applicant is applying to subdivide his 19.40-acre property into two residential lots.

Grants to Community Organizations, Special Events

The North East Native Advancing Society grant request for $2000 to host a career forum and award banquet was approved.

Remuneration Bylaw

The Remuneration and Expense Bylaw was adopted and will be revisited in six months. The PRRD Remuneration Bylaw provides direction for payment of remuneration and expenses for the Regional Board Chair, Directors, Alternates, and Commissioners.

Farmers Advocate Review

MNP presented their findings of the Review of the Farmers Advocate Office to the Board.

Short Term recommendations included renewing the FAO agreement and funding for a transitory period of one and a half to two years, to continue to strengthen relationships with stakeholders, and to increase the use of methodical reporting tools to gain a better understanding of the demographics served by the FAO.

Long term recommendations included exploring alternative service delivery models, cost recovery models and expanding the scope of services.

Recommendations made by MNP as part of the evaluation will not be considered until staff have consulted the Ministry of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources and the Ministry of Agriculture on their willingness to continue the program.

The Peace River Regional District met with Provincial Government Representatives about Caribou

On January 23, 2019 representatives from the PRRD and Concerned Citizens for Caribou Recovery met with the Provincial Ministers of Environment and Forests and Lands at the BC Natural Resources Forum.

The meeting concluded with a commitment from the Province to initiate public and stakeholder engagement in early February on the draft Partnership Agreement to recover caribou in the Peace region. As part of the engagement, the Province committed to sharing data and analyses on potential impacts of the Agreement and made a commitment to work with the PRRD to evaluate impacts of the Agreement on Peace communities. The Agreement will not be finalized until engagement is complete and potential impacts on communities and workers are understood. The PRRD has requested confirmation of the public engagement schedule from the Province.

Electoral Area Happenings

Delegations

Mike McConnell of the Cattlemen's Association, attended the January 17, Electoral Area Directors Committee meeting to discuss the new requirements under the Water Sustainability Act regarding licensing groundwater for non-domestic purposes. Although Mr. McConnell has had meetings and discussions with provincial officials, it is still unknown what the expectations of the new regulations will be. The Electoral Area Directors will be sending letters to the Ministry of Environment and Climate Change Strategy to ask for clarification on the proposed regulations, definitions and its expectations.

Electoral Areas Support South Peace Health Services Society Initiatives

Electoral Area Directors of Area "E" and Area "D" supported the Peace Health Services Society Bulterys Community House project with a $25,000 grant from each Electoral Area. The $50,000 grant will go towards purchasing and renovating patient and health professional accommodations.
