STUDENT VOTER SURGE CREDITED WITH BOOSTING TURNOUT IN 2015 FEDERAL ELECTION

According to a Statistics Canada post-Federal election report released Monday, February 22, 2016, young Canadians (18-24) turned out in record numbers and helped increase overall voter turnout to the highest level in 25 years.

"The Stats Can report confirms what we saw at campuses across the province during the election: students were interested, students were involved, students wanted to help make a difference," said Simka Marshall, chairperson of the BC Federation of Students.

"Together we sent a powerful message to the skeptics and the cynics: young Canadians do care about being part of the solution and we're stepping forward in record numbers. Don't underestimate this generation," concluded Ms. Marshall.

Comparing the 2011 and 2015 elections, the number of Canadians who reported that they voted increased 12 percentage points among people aged 18 to 24, and 11 percentage points among those aged 25 to 34.

The BC Federation of Students is a non-partisan organization that represents over 200,000 students across 15 post-secondary institutions in every region of B.C.

A LITTLE TRIVIA

Dissociative Amnesia

Dissociative amnesia is a loss of personal memory caused by a severe psychological trauma.

Because the amnesia does not result from physiological trauma, such as a brain injury or disease, it is often treated with psychological therapy. While dissociative amnesia is often associated with particular events or periods of time, in its most radical form there is a total abandonment of personal identity and memory.

THE SEQUEL TO THE CHRISTMAS STORY OF JAN 22

As some of you readers know, I was very blessed at Christmas by the help and gifts from my neighbors in our communities after a fire destroyed my home. As with all wonderful things, sometimes there are other things that try to dampen our spirits and that is what someone tried to do. When I returned from taking my sister back to Calgary I noticed that someone had entered my home and decided to remove some of the gifts I had been so generously given. I do not know why someone would do this, but I want them to know that I will not be, and am not angry about this. For anger only hurts our soul and spirit. To them I want to say "I hope the bedding will keep you warm, I hope the food will nourish your body, I hope the TV will provide you entertainment. I hope the dog bed and food will keep your pet happy. I hope the liquor will help alleviate the pain you must feel. You must be in desperate need and I am sorry that you are in such a bad place in your life at this time. I do hope that God will provide you with enough in the future so that you can be content and at peace so that you will be able to reach out and help others. Giving is the most incredible statement of Love and one of the things that help us feel valuable as human beings. The second most important lesson is forgiveness and I do forgive you for your wrong doing. I hope you will reach for the good in life and life will be good to you.
