The word of the day is: pugnacious
1) inclined to quarrel or fight readily;
quarrelsome; belligerent; combative.
ex: in addition, Rose, in retirement, had often resorted to the headfirst, pugnacious style he displayed as a player, not always seeming contrite about what he had done wrong.

GRAND OPENING OF THE LION INN & SUITES

The Lion Inn & Suites had its grand opening on January 26th, 2016. The newly renovated building, furnished with custom appliances and flooring, features 19 well-equipped suites available for daily, weekly, or monthly renting.

The building was bought from the Seventh-Day Adventist Church in 2012 and renovations started in the summer of 2014. Construction was mostly done in November 2015, but Ken Chan, the owner of the business, says there are still a few finishing touches to be done.

The winner of a 1 night stay in a Queen Suite was Elaine Davis, and the winner of 2 large pizzas from the Red Lion was Laura Murfitt. Refreshments and cake were donated by Larry at Super Valu.

A senior citizen called her husband during his drive home.

"Herman, I just heard on the news that there's a car going the wrong way on Interstate 90. Please be careful!"

Herman replied, "It's not just one car. There's hundreds of them!"

CHETWYND FIRE DEPARTMENT EXTINGUISHES DRYER FIRE

The Chetwynd Fire Department responded to a trailer fire in the Legion Subdivision at 11:00 p.m. last evening.

A young couple noticed smoke coming from their dryer and the adjacent floor boards. The family quickly evacuated the home and called 911. Firefighters confined the fire to the floor area, skirting an area around the home's furnace. No one sustained any injuries, and the cause of the fire is not deemed suspicious.

It is with much sadness that we announce the passing of Gary Norman Biech, born on January 11, 1944 and passed away peacefully on January 21, 2016. He will surely be remembered for being a kind, gentle, generous man with a big laugh, amazing musical talent and an intense love for cars and hockey. Gary will be lovingly remembered and is survived by his brother Russell Biech; his three children Dallas (Patricia), Kandace (Tim) and Landan (Lindsey) and his four grandchildren, Kyle, Cassidy, Tanner and Keagan. We will be holding a service for Gary which is to be announced at a later date.

CHETWYND RCMP NEWS REPORT

Just after noon on Tuesday, January 25, on Highway 97 South, approximately 5 km east of Chetwynd, a 39 year old woman was the victim of a would be robbery and assault.

The victim, who is a delivery driver, was travelling on Highway 97 toward Chetwynd when she heard a large bang. She pulled over to the side of the road to establish whether she had blown a tire. While conducting a vehicle check, a male wearing a balaclava appeared from behind the truck, punched her in the face and threw her into the side of her truck.

The male demanded cash, but when the victim stated that she didn't have any, the male fled in a black or dark blue sedan with Saskatchewan license plates.

The male is described as Caucasian, 6' - 6'2", wearing a winter coat with red trim, blue jeans and dark colored gloves.

"We need the public to assist us in locating the male responsible for assaulting this woman. We are confident someone has information to help us solve this crime," states Sgt. Olivia Tremblay, Detachment Commander of the Chetwynd RCMP.

Residents are asked to be extra vigilant when travelling alone. If you hear a large bang, drive to the nearest rest stop or gas station before getting out of your car to conduct a vehicle check. If you experience vehicle problems, pull over to the side of the roadway, but remain in your vehicle with the doors locked, then call for assistance.

If you have information about this crime, please contact the Chetwynd RCMP at 250-788-9221 or if you wish to remain anonymous, contact Crime stoppers:

CROCKER, Lance Allan

December 9, 1958 – January 23, 2016

With much love we remember Lance, who passed away after a brief illness on January 23 at the age of 57. Lance's kind and gentle nature will be missed by all, not the least his wife Dale, children Allan and Angie (Kris), grandchildren Lindsay, Kaura-Beth, Kaiden and Tearsyn, siblings Karen (Tim), Lorne (Tami), Ida, Veasey, Scott, Craig, Lacey (Michael), and Caryn. Lance is predeceased by his mother Verna Bell, and his father Marvin Crocker. Born in William's Lake, Lance moved to Yellowknife at the age of 15. While in Yellowknife, Lance married and raised his family. Lance worked most of his life as a truck driver, mostly in the NWT, BC, and Alberta. Lance enjoyed spending time with his beloved family, camping, fishing, skating, sliding and playing with the grandkids. He was also very handy, and could always be counted on to help anyone in need. No project was too large or too small. A celebration of Lance's life will be held at Chetwynd Fellowship Baptist Church at 4817-53rd Street in Chetwynd, BC, on Saturday, January 30, 2016 at 3:00pm.

ELECTRIC EELS WELCOME NEW HEAD COACH

Eduardo Finkelstein brings a wealth of experience to his position as head coach of the Chetwynd Electric Eels swim club. The Eels had been anticipating Eduardo's arrival for over two years, he and his family came to Chetwynd from Porto Alegre Brazil in December. Eduardo will be replacing coach Pam Joyce who had been serving as interim head coach for many years.

Eduardo's experience includes time spent as an athlete as well as a coach. His athletic accomplishments include Ironman Brazil, Ironman World Championships Hawaii, International Triathlon Union World Cup and worldwide competitions for elite athletes in Brazil, New Zealand, Portugal and the United States.

Swimmers on the Electric Eels team are sure to benefit from Eduardo's coaching expertise. He has served as a coach for the Brazilian National Triathlon Team, Israel National Triathlon Team, the Athlete Lab in Singapore and the Atlantis Swim Club in Australia. Eduardo has coached athletes at 2 Olympic games in Sydney (2000) and Athens (2004).

Finkelstein admits that his coaching history may lead one to wonder why he would bring his level of coaching accomplishments to a relatively small club in Chetwynd "The answer is simple: quality of life - security - and having more time with my family. It may seem to be small but for me a head coach who has worked with a few National Teams around the world and achieved the highest spot on coaching ladder it is what make sense." Eduardo looks forward to working with and challenging swimmers at all levels of ability. For anyone who is considering participating in a new sport such as swimming Eduardo challenges them to "risk waking up to see your world for what it truly is - a playing field of limitless challenges designed for your personal edification and enlightenment. That being the case, and it is, what threat, if any, awaits you? Only one. Not playing the game."

The Eels are confident that with Eduardo coaching the team they will continue to succeed; improving their personal best times, breaking club records and celebrating each others accomplishments. Eduardo will bring a new spin and opportunities to the club. He hopes to see the current team of 31 swimmers between the ages of 5-15 add new members. The Eels will be offering an adult masters swim group for anyone who is interested in the sport very soon. New members are welcome and encouraged to join the club at any time. If you are interested in registering a young swimmer or in information about a masters class please contact Pam Joyce at (250) 788-5989.

CHRISTMAS GENEROSITY

Back just before Christmas I was doing some last minute shopping in IGA. As I wandered the aisles, I noticed this older gentleman. His coat was a bit worn and he needed a shave. As we passed each other in the aisle I gave him a big smile but he hurried on by. I finished up my shopping, then headed to the cashier. Lo and behold, he was in front of me. There was a man in a suit in front of him, and when the man with the suit left, this older gentleman put his few groceries through and took his wallet to pay.

The cashier said, "It's okay, sir, that man that just left already paid for you."

The gent looked down and hurried out the door, and I was so touched over the generosity of the man in the suit. I am new to the community and this really made a huge impact on me. I look forward to becoming a member of this community and will follow in this mans footsteps. Thank you for the gift whoever you are.

I am writing this column from my hotel room in the great city of Prince George where the Premier's BC Natural Resources Forum is in full spate. Always an information-packed event put on annually to cheer us through the dark days of January, this year did not disappoint us in that respect. Events never stray far from topics such as forestry, mining, shipping, LNG, world economic trends, and First Nations issues.

I'm always fascinated and not a little entertained with the solemn reports of economists attempting to project present economic conditions into the misty unknown. I realize that they do their best to give us an idea of what might happen with the bears and bulls of the market, but there is one big thing that they just can't see – the future.

And then, there's the economist who assured us that if a corporation has one of his kind on the payroll it has at least one employee too many.

Which should give us all a modicum of confidence in their projections.

That said, I'll share with you some of their wisdom as I interpreted it: China, India, and other emerging markets will require a greater infusion of material goods as they struggle to attain to the life style that we have enjoyed for a few decades. That means they'll be importing more lumber, more gas, and, in the short term, more coal. But will they get it from us?

Third World countries, or, as termed by the economists, the emerging economies, are also growing rapidly and will, before most of us have numbered our days, be responsible for pushing the world's population over the 8 billion mark for, as far as we know, the first time in this world's short and mostly brutal history. All these new souls will require more food, more fabric, more fiber, more gas, more metal, more plastic, and more of just about everything we have learned to love. The world's ability to keep up with the growing demand is not at all certain.

That's the long-term projection. What's the short term, the five- to ten-year look over the horizon? Oil is hitting a low as we all know. It's even being felt at our local gas pumps –though we are still about 20 cents behind Prince George. Commodity prices are predicted to continue weak throughout 2016 but will stabilize sooner or later. That's comforting. Forestry is moderately healthy and we can expect to see modest growth in the US housing market in the months ahead. Still, with the bogey of no Soft Wood Agreement with the US we can't be certain of real stability real soon in the forest sector. (Both of our Senior Governments have this high on their to-do lists.)

LNG may still see the light of day but don't expect much growth in mining.

That's the bad news. The good news is that the Premier assured us that we are tough and we won't lie down and quit.
