LGFSC ICE SHOW

This past Saturday, the Little Giants Figure Skating Club had their Ice Show. This year's theme was "Decades of Music." The show included all figure skaters from Pre-Can, Can Skate, Juniors and Seniors, and even had 5 guest skaters that were previously in the club but had graduated in various years before.

All of the music was upbeat and fun and you could tell that even with all the hard work these skaters were still having a great time. The $5000 raffle ticket prize went to Daun Newman, sold by Anika Vissers.

Many people showed up for the dinner to help support this year's Chainsaw Carving Competition in June. The Society is a newly formed group of great people wanting to continue Chetwynd's Chainsaw Carving and have volunteered their time to do so.

STEAK NIGHT FUNDRAISER

Saturday's Steak Dinner Fundraiser also had a silent auction, which had several great prizes that had been graciously donated from business owners here in Chetwynd. The society raised just over $4000 for the event.

This is the first of a few fundraisers they have planned to accumulate the funds necessary to hold this competition with carvers from around the world. They also plan on holding a community raffle and also auctioning a few carvings and a quilt, also donated.

This year's competition will have a few new recruits with 4 international carvers, 4 Canadian carvers and 3 carvers from the U.S. One of the Canadians competing is local carver Randy Gauthier.

The Chainsaw Carving Society have created "Friends of the Society," where for $10 you will be able to help by donating your time and ideas to help with the organization of the event from June 8-11, 2017.

This year, the Chainsaw Carving Competition gets the recognition of being one of Canada's official 150 events, meaning it will be on Canada's 150th birthday events list. This will hopefully bring Canadians from all over the nation to see these world renowned carvers. Keep your eye out for future fundraisers for your chance to help with this year's Chetwynd Chainsaw Carving Competition.
