MORE CELLULAR SERVICE FOR B.C. HIGHWAYS

Improved cellular service is coming to B.C. highways 95 and 97 as record investments from the Connecting British Columbia program continue to benefit people throughout the province.

"While miles apart, these two highways have many things in common. They can have difficult winter driving conditions, they're prone to sudden road closures and they have large gaps without cellular service," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Citizens' Services. "We can't change the weather, but we can make strategic investments to help expand highway cellular service in B.C. With these latest projects, we are on track to more than triple our target to increase highway cellular coverage, making our highways safer than ever before."

Rogers will receive up to $5.47 million from the Connecting British Columbia program toward the estimated $6.4-million cost of filling in cellular gaps along 68 kilometres of Highway 97 between Chetwynd and the Highway 39 junction. The route includes Pine Pass, a sparsely populated area prone to avalanche conditions. Cellular service will also be made available at the West Pine rest area and Powder King Mountain Resort.

"Our world is becoming more and more connected, and we want to be sure that people using our rural transportation networks can fully capitalize on that connectivity. Investments like these, combined with the improved safety and access to services that cellular and Wi-Fi provides, will help our regional economies recover and thrive in the post-pandemic world," said Roly Russell, Parliamentary Secretary for Rural Development. "Working together, we can ensure the incredible benefits of technology can be enjoyed by everyone in B.C." Jayde Duranleau, youth councillor with the McLeod Lake Indian Band, said: "This new cellular coverage will benefit northern communities and will provide much-needed safety and cell service to a long stretch of highway. The coverage is essential and will bring peace of mind to our commuters and community members who regularly use the highway."

Rogers will also receive $774,000 from the Connecting British Columbia program to upgrade cellular service along Highway 95 between Golden and Spillimacheen. This work will include improved coverage at the Braisher Creek rest area and in the communities of Nicholson, Parson and Harrogate. The Connecting British Columbia program was expanded in September 2020 as part of StrongerBC: BC's Economic Recovery Plan. For the first time in the program's history, a mandate was included to improve access to cellular for people in rural and Indigenous communities.

"Rogers is proud to continue investing in British Columbia on these highway connectivity projects to build critically needed 5G networks to bridge the digital divide in partnership with the B.C. government," said Dean Prevost, president, Connected Home and Rogers for Business. "Connecting Canadians, including rural, remote and Indigenous communities, is a top priority for Rogers. Through this partnership, we are providing improved safety and reliable connectivity for those who depend on highways 95 and 97, while creating new jobs and supporting B.C.'s economy."

Funding from the expanded program has successfully encouraged the expansion of cellular service along 429 kilometres of highways throughout the province, increasing safety and convenience for people travelling along routes like Highway 14 on Vancouver Island and Highway 16 between Prince Rupert and Prince George. The Connecting British Columbia program provides grants that help service providers with the cost of expanding connectivity and making it more reliable in rural and Indigenous communities. The program is delivered by Northern Development Initiative Trust.

"Investing in infrastructure that improves lives for people in rural communities is imperative as B.C. begins its recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic," said Joel McKay, CEO, Northern Development Initiative Trust. "Assets like cell towers make our highways safer and more productive while making it easier for people to access services, from health care to emergency response. Northern Development is pleased to support this work that assists rural and Indigenous communities now and into the future."

The highways 95 and 97 cellular projects are expected to be completed by October 2021.

Boater safety on the Peace River

A four-kilometre section of the Peace River is permanently closed to boaters during the construction of the Site C project. River users are advised to use extreme caution when on or near the river this summer due to strong undertows, especially in locations immediately upstream of the dam site.

Portage program: To move boaters around the construction area, a portage program for non-motorized boats will operate between the Halfway River boat launch and the Peace Island Park boat launch from May 15 to September 15. Reservations are required seven days in advance of pickup.

For more information visit sitecproject.com/boating or call 1 877 217 0777.

Rule 8.
The Rule of Interruption.
Although the company be engaged in a discourse of the most serious consequence, it is, and may be lawful to interrupt them with a pun.

I'm not the easiest guy in the world to get along with. So when our anniversary rolled around, I wanted my wife to know how much I appreciated her tolerating me for the past 20 years. I ordered flowers and told the florist to enclose a card that read, "Thanks for putting up with me so long." When my wife got the delivery, she called me at work. "Where are you going?" she asked. "What do you mean?" I said. She read the card aloud as the florist had written it: "Thanks for putting up with me. So long."

The milder form of sarcasm, when kept within the bounds of good taste and good feeling, is far from being offensive; indeed, it is generally in perfect harmony with the tone of pleasantries and badinage peculiar to good society.

DISTRICT OF CHETWYND Green INITIATIVES

KICK IT TO THE CURB

FREE COMMUNITY GARAGE SALE!

Reduce, Reuse, Kick It!

Do you have any household or sports items you no longer use or want? For a month from April 22 – May 21, place your unwanted items at the curbside for others to take. Browse through and take items that others have placed at the curbside. Please register with the Parks Department at (250) 401-4100 prior to May 15th if you need assistance with items that need to be disposed of and you are unable to take the items to the landfill. Please note, some items may not qualify.

PITCH IN WEEK

PROJECT CLEAN-UP

May 15-21 is Pitch In Week!

If you want to register your group to pick up trash as a fundraiser, please call (250) 401-4100. The District will supply trash bags and pick up the full bags at the roadside when you're done.

RECYCLING

The District and the Recycling Depot would like to thank all the residents of Chetwynd for your continued recycling efforts. Recycling is picked up biweekly. The Recycling Depot also now takes motor oil and antifreeze for recycling; the bins are locked out back in the Recycling Depot yard and you need to go inside and get someone before dumping the oil or antifreeze. The big grey organic waste bin is beside the Recycling Depot for those who wish to dispose of leaves, small prunings and grass.

SPRING CLEANUP

The Peace River Regional District is running Spring Cleanup from May 31 - June 13; please call the PRRD at 250-784-3200 to get your free dumping coupons.

CHETWYND COMMUNITY GARDENS

Would you like to grow vegetables but don't have a garden plot on your property? The Chetwynd Community Gardens are located on the east side of the Pine Valley Exhibition Park property in the Rodeo Subdivision. The garden plot size is 25'x 25' and they're FREE to use for residents of Chetwynd! To confirm your space or continue using a garden plot please contact the Parks Manager at 250-401-4100.

CHETWYND FARMERS' MARKET

The Farmers' Market is kicking off the new season with events to be held every Friday from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm starting May 14th; the Farmers' Market is located at Carvers Row near Don Titus Park in downtown Chetwynd, beside Hwy 97. We anticipate running the Farmers' Market until Friday October 1st, weather permitting. Please contact Cheryl Widdicombe at 250-788-3494 if you'd like to book a table at the Farmers' Market.
