Dan Davies takes on the battle to open Gyms

B.C.'s Provincial Health Officer is facing criticism for closing gyms, Dr. Bonnie Henry has been receiving backlash from gym owners over the decision. However, provincial health officials aren't only hearing backlash from gym owners. A local MLA has written a letter to B.C.'s top doctor and Health Minister, asking for the restrictions to be rescinded. Dan Davies, the MLA for Peace River North says gyms are essential. Especially this time of year.

"The big picture is, we need to be looking after people's mental health, gyms especially in the winter are essential. We are in a new year, people have made commitments, so I think it's absolutely critical that we keep these open," says Davies. Davies says gyms aren't only important for mental health, but for physical health as well. "There's no doubt that over the last few years, people's mental health and physical health are extremely important," says Davies.

In an email sent to CIBC-TV News, Dr. Henry says "While I may not have, and certainly right now. I can't tell you every single case that's been linked to a gym, but we can tell you that we've seen this as a pattern, that these are environments that are higher risk and when there's a lot of transmission in the community, particularly in that age group, so the age demographic that is going to gyms that is highly connected." Henry explained, there is a higher risk of transmission in places such as gyms.

"We know there is increased risk with exertion and increased respiratory rate that is specific to gyms versus restaurants. We encourage and support online classes and know that it has been very helpful when these settings have been closed in the past during periods of high risk for transmission," says Henry. However, gym owners and member should stay hopeful. Henry says she is working with the fitness industry to ensure that people can get back to the gym as soon as possible. I'm working very closely with the fitness industry, with the sports groups, to make sure that we can get back to doing safe activities in gyms as soon as possible, as soon as this wave passes.

Province-wide restrictions on gatherings and events are likely to be extended as COVID-19 transmission remains high across British Columbia, health officials said Tuesday. But Dr. Henry suggested the government might relax other measures, if they are no longer deemed necessary to limit the spread of the Omicron variant.

The decision whether or not to extend the provincial health order keeping gyms closed, will be made next Tuesday, January 18th.

Winter Parking and District Roads Information Everyone Should Know

Winter comes with snowfalls and snow removal is always a concern. When removing snow from your property it is required that the snow pile must remain on your property and not be pushed across the roads and onto district property or other private property.

The District of Chetwynd is committed to keeping all our roads safe for all citizens and therefore any vehicles parked in a manner that interferes with effective snow removal may be removed.

A full list of the District of Chetwynd Bylaws can be found on our website at www.gochetwynd.com under the heading Municipal Office/Bylaws and follow the link.

The Streets and Traffic Regulation Bylaw # 909, 2009 section 5.13:

Obstruction of Motor Vehicles
No vehicle shall be left standing or parked:

(iv) in a position that causes it to interfere with the construction, improvement, maintenance, alterations, extension, widening, marking, or repair of or snow removal from a highway.

The District of Chetwynd's Snow Clearing Policy, snow plowing will begin after 50mm of snow accumulation, roads will be plowed on a priority basis and residential streets will be plowed within 48 hours following the subsidence of the snowfall. If vehicles are parked on residential streets following a snow fall, the road will not be cleared until all vehicles have been removed and it has been deemed safe by the District. For further information regarding this or other Bylaw related questions please call Bylaw Enforcement at 250-401-4119

Working together to make things better

If you are looking for a way to make your town and your world better, and if you would like to expand your professional network, the Rotary Club might be the place for you. The organization has changed many lives, through community service projects, business networks, and international humanitarian and professional development programs.

In Canada, local clubs meet weekly for breakfast or lunch so that members can forge professional links, plan humanitarian and community projects, and build solid friendships with each other. Some clubs welcome guest speakers from various fields of interest and host international exchange students or career professionals on exchange. Others focus on raising money for local charities, sending medical equipment abroad, and training young people to run businesses.

There are about 34,000 Rotary clubs around the world. Their members are of all stripes: entrepreneurs, educators, civil servants, engineers, freelancers, and executives. They are all united by a desire to promote business integrity and professional development. They also share a vision for making life better for others, as they work together to fight hunger in underdeveloped countries and to bring polio vaccines to every family in the world.

Horoscope

for January 16-22 2022

The luckiest signs this week: Libra, Scorpio and Sagittarius

ARIES

You'll accomplish a heroic feat! You may be a great help to someone in need who'll be forever grateful to you for taking the time to listen to them.

TAURUS

You'll spend a lot of time at home with your family. Your children, for example, may need you to look after them. Working from home will be in order. However, you'll enjoy getting down to business.

GEMINI

If you find yourself in a difficult situation, ask your friends and family for help. Your friends might also come to you for advice.

CANCER

You'll want to redecorate and breathe new life into your living space. You may feel compelled to buy a home or move into a new apartment if you're feeling cramped.

LEO

Now is the time to act! You'll be quick-witted and cut to the chase. If you're active on social media, one of your comments will get a lot of attention.

VIRGO

Give yourself time to rest and relax. You may devote yourself to someone you care about; this is a person with who you share a lot of fond memories.

LIBRA

You're needed and won't be able to run away or hide your head in the sand. An active social life starts with good organization and planning. If you take the initiative, everyone will rally behind you.

SCORPIO

You have a lot of responsibilities on your shoulders, and everyone is counting on you. You may need to isolate yourself to get all your tasks done on time.

SAGITTARIUS

If you want to plan your dream adventure, now's the time to get organized. You'll need to make some changes in your life to achieve your personal and professional goals.

CAPRICORN

There's something you can't get off your mind. You must focus on your priorities. If you have an artistic or creative flair, you'll be inspired to create a masterpiece.

AQUARIUS

Sometimes you're shy and other times you're outgoing. Even though you're not always easy to figure out, you're extremely trustworthy. You might need to weigh the pros and cons of a particular situation.

PISCES

You'll see things more clearly by cleaning out your home or office. You'll need to get plenty of rest to avoid bringing germs into your home this winter.
