Surerus Place Holds Pig Roast & BBQ to Help Bring Awareness to Elder Abuse

This past Thursday, Surerus Place held a pig roast BBQ. The turn out was better than expected with approximately 100 people attending. Friends gathered to spend time together and converse over a great feast of pork, burgers, hotdogs, salads, treats and even ice cream. But there was another reason everyone was gathered and that was to help bring awareness to the elder abuse epidemic that plagues our seniors.

Abuse and neglect can happen to anyone and recognizing the signs of it can help us better learn how to identify and how to help support the abused. Abusers come in many forms including a spouse, friends, paid or unpaid caregivers and landlords or financial advisors. Many factors lead to seniors vulnerability including dependency, shared living situations, disabilities, language barriers and addiction. Types of abuse in seniors includes neglect, financial abuse, physical abuse, sexual abuse and emotional abuse.

Chetwynd's Satellite Rotary Club Inducts New Members

Chetwynd's Rotary Club called it quits a number of years ago but has reassembled with the help of Karen and Anthony Boos of Royal LePage-Cascade Realty and the Dawson Creek Rotary Club.

These "Rotarians" as they call themselves are professional and Community leaders with the common interest of working together to create a positive impact in their communities. They rely on their core values which include service, integrity, diversity, fellowship, and leadership. With over 1 million members nationally, the Rotary Club was created in 1905 by founder Paul Harris. Mr. Harris collaborated with other business and community members to create the Rotary Club. Now in this new Millenium, the club has adapted to societal changes and have updated club structures but their core values remain the same. The Club inducted 10 new members who will collaborate once weekly to conduct their business. Pictured are the new members of the Club along with other members of the Rotary Club.

Here are ways to recognize abuse and neglect in others- injuries, changes in outlook or living arrangements, home services are cancelled, the person shows fear. There are also tips to recognizing abuse in your own situation- you feel afraid of an abuser, you're capable of making decisions but feel ignored or are "not permitted to", someone is taking your money, you feel isolated.

Her kids and grandkids were her whole world so in turn they worshipped her and were very involved in her life. Marilyn loved to garden and took great pride in her beautiful flowers. Application to Amend Environmental Assessment Certificate, #E14-02, for the Site C Clean Energy Project

Invitation to Comment

BC Hydro, (the "Certificate Holder") has submitted an application for an amendment of the Environmental Assessment Certificate (EAC) #E14-02 for the Site C Clean Energy project (the "Project"), issued on October 14, 2014, and amended on February 12, 2019 under the Environmental Assessment Act.

The Project is located approximately 5 km southwest of Fort St. John, BC. The Project is made up of an earthfill dam along with the associated generating station, spillways, reservoir, substation, transmission lines, and Highway 29 realignments.

The application for amendment is focused on changes to the design of Highway 29 realignment at Cache Creek/Bear Flat.

The following change is proposed:

Revisions to allow a change in the route of the Cache Creek segment of the Highway 29 realignment, including refinements to the route and lengthening the bridge. The new route is located north of the original alignment in the EAC.

The public comment period is 30-days. During this period, the public is invited to submit concerns regarding new or additional adverse impacts that might result from the proposed amendment.

The intention of seeking public comments is to ensure that all potential effects – environmental, economic, social, heritage and health – that might result from the proposed changes are identified for consideration as part of the amendment process.

The comment period will begin on June 21, 2019, and conclude on July 20, 2019. All comments within the scope of the application for amendment will be considered as part of EAO's review.

NOTE: All submissions received by the EAO during the comment period in relation to the proposed Amendment are considered public and will be posted to the EAO website.

The Decision Statement under the Canadian Environmental Assessment Act, 2012, issued by the federal Minister of Environment and Climate Change on November 25, 2014, contains conditions regarding BC Hydro's obligations in regard to the Project. The Canadian Environmental Assessment Agency will consider comments received by EAO regarding potential adverse environmental effects from the proposed project changes and the proposed mitigation measures in the context of the Decision Statement.

SUMMER IS THE HUNGRIEST TIME OF THE YEAR

Summer tends to be the season that everyone looks forward to. As the school-year comes to an end, kids are looking forward to getting out of the classroom and spending more time with their family and friends. But for those who rely on school nutrition programs for meals, summertime can be a struggle.

In Canada, one in six children are at risk of hunger. Food insecurity is a real issue, with more and more of us not having access to nutritious food each day. Yet nutritious food is crucial for healthy growth and development, and even small amounts of deficiencies over time can have lasting effects on children's health, including an increased risk of asthma and overall mental health.

Children who live in food-insecure households also experience a greater loss of learning – just imagine trying to pay attention in class without breakfast. Now it's lunchtime and you're watching your friends eat their lunches – maybe they share a few bites, but most likely not. Your stomach is rumbling, and you still have a few hours to go before you're heading home for the day, where dinner may or may not be served.

This is why school nutrition programs are so important. But what happens when school's out for the summer and those programs aren't available?

President's Choice Children's Charity is working to help feed hungry minds by supporting a variety of food and food-based education programs. Recognizing the need to extend their reach beyond the school year, the organization has partnered with the Boys and Girls Club of Canada to exclusively fund all meals provided during their 2019 summer camps. As part of this year's program, more than 41,000 children across the country will receive well-balanced meals over eight weeks.

Which camping experience is right for you?

Whether you'd rather battle the elements or preserve your comfort, there's a camping experience that's right for you. Here are some of the different ways you can get close to nature this summer.

BACKPACKING

Are you an experienced camper who wants to venture deep into the wilderness? Then backpacking may be right for you. This type of camping involves carrying all your gear on your back and hiking to one or more remote campsites. Sleep at the base of a mountain, at the edge of a stream, on the shore of a lake or anywhere else your feet may take you.

TENT CAMPING

Tent camping can include all the comforts of home but if you're looking to rough it, you can forgo the excess gear. How far away from civilization you go is also entirely up to you, with thousands of campgrounds across the country to choose from. The amenities available at each campground differ but many are equipped with showers, laundry facilities, potable water and electric outlets.

RV CAMPING

RV camping is more comfortable than tent camping. It's especially practical if you want to live in the wilderness for an extended period or if you want to visit a number of different parks. There are RVs for every budget, from small folding camping trailers to luxury motorhomes. If buying isn't an option, it's also possible to rent RVs.

CABIN CAMPING

Cabin camping is perfect if you're looking for a home away from home nestled in the wilderness. There are many types of cabins that can be rented, all the way from modest shacks to luxurious cottages. Undoubtedly, at a certain point a camper becomes a cottager, but you can decide for yourself where that line falls.

No matter what type of camper you are, remember to always let someone know where you're going and when they can expect you back. Happy camping!
