THE GAME OF THRONES NUMBER 5 THRONE FOUND IN TUMBLER RIDGE

Popular drama series the Game of Thrones, geared up for their final season by hiding 6 thrones all around the world. And one was found in none other than Tumbler Ridge. The throne was hidden near Babcock Creek.

The couple that found the throne are very outdoorsy people says Tumbler Ridge's Mayor. He went on to say they have been a big part in the creating and maintaining a lot of the trails in the area so its a fitting accomplishment for them. Mayor Bertrand also mentioned the throne, that is placed near a popular frozen waterfall destination, is a low strenuous hike, perfectly situated.

This legendary throne of King's Landing, is made from "a thousand swords of the vanquished, and forged in dragon fire". The first was found in Forest of Dean in Gloucestershire, UK. The other three found thrones were located in Björkliden in Sweden, Castillo De Atienza in Spain and Beberibe, Ceará in Brazil.

It is not clear yet whether the throne will remain on site until Sunday or Monday, so if you would like to see the throne in person, here are the directions from finder, Birgit Sharman: To get to see the throne, drive south of Tumbler Ridge on Hwy 52 for 20 km, which is 1 km past the turnoff to the Peace River Coal Mine on the Core Lodge Rd. There's a pullout on the right side. The throne is there, beside Babcock Creek.
