Back to School - Bus Safety -

This week, children and adults return to school and work which creates congestion on our roads. ICBC is asking drivers to leave extra travel time, stay focussed on the road and watch for children especially around school zones. Every year, 380 children are injured in crashes while walking or cycling and five are killed throughout the province.

It's always a good to go over and remind ourselves of proper safety precautions for students when getting on and off the bus, as well as for other drivers to be careful on the roads with the extra school buses driving around in the mornings and afternoons. School bus drivers want you to pay attention to the flashing lights on the buses. When you see the lights on a school bus go on, that is an indication that they will be stopping. The flashing yellow lights at the top and side of the bus mean they will be stopping in the next 200 yards. Once those lights go on, IT'S ILLEGAL TO PASS THE BUS. There is one exception to the rule-- that's if there is a median in the road. Otherwise, it doesn't matter if it's a two-lane or four-lane road. All drivers must stop when those flashing lights are on. Have you ever wondered what a fine would look like for those disobeying school bus lights and passing illegally?

First offence: $400 to $2,000 and six demerit points..

Each following offence: $1,000 to $4,000, six demerit points and possible jail time (up to six months)

Vehicle owners can be charged if their vehicle illegally passes a stopped school bus, even if they weren't driving.

Make time before student's first day to remind them of school bus safety when you board or leave a bus

- Be at the bus stop before the bus comes.
- Wait in a safe place well back from the edge of the road - don't play in ditches or on snow banks.
- Stay out of the DANGER ZONE. If you can touch the bus, you're too close. Use 10 giant steps to take you out of the DANGER ZONE, and make sure you and the bus driver can see each other.
- Always cross the road in front of the bus, never behind.
- Look all ways and wait for the driver to signal before you cross in front of a bus.
- Walk at least 10 big steps from the front of the bus.
- Enter or exit the bus in single file. Never push or shove.
- Walk - never run - across the road.
- NEVER stop to pick up anything that you may have dropped in the DANGER ZONE. Ask an adult or the bus driver to help.

4 TIPS FOR DEALING WITH A LEAKING ROOF AND HOME INSURANCE

Water is the new fire in home insurance. Water leakage and flooding can quickly spread throughout a house. According to the Insurance Bureau of Canada, insurance companies are now paying more for water damage than fire damage.

To prevent getting stuck in a stressful claim situation, it's important to know how your insurance covers water damage. Start by making sure you have the best home insurance for your needs by comparing rates at LowestRates.ca, which can quickly and easily find you the right home insurance at the best price.

Now, here are a few things to keep in mind if a leak springs in your home.

Insurance companies will send an adjuster: The insurance company will send someone over to survey the damage and verify that your claim is covered by your policy. Take some time before they arrive to go over your policy. Make sure to ask a lot of questions if something isn't clear.

Have your roof inspected regularly: Being able to show that you've kept an eye on your roof will help if you need to make a claim. It's also helpful to make sure you're cleaning your eavestroughs and checking that shingles are maintained. If your insurance company suspects a maintenance issue, they may find reason to deny your claim.

Always review your policy when it renews: Reviewing your policy allows you to know if any changes have been made by the insurance company. The worst thing you can find is that you're not covered for something you thought you were. With situations like a leaking roof, there may be specific language in your policy that can change over time.

Obtain documentation from a professional roofer: If you've ever had your roof worked on in any way, it's important to get documentation from the contractor outlining what they've done. If damage occurs due to rainfall or ice, getting a letter from a professional roofer outlining the damage and how it occurred can greatly help when talking to your insurance company and going through the claim process.

Too much talk might lead to hassles. Tell them to get out of the mess they are in and then you'll consider getting together with them. You can make life easier for an older member of your family. Put your efforts into your work or money making ventures rather than your emotional life. Your lucky day this week will be Wednesday.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Do not let the reactions of others get you going. New projects may lead you into a dead end. Update and review your personal investments. You will enjoy socializing and unusual forms of entertainment. Your lucky day this week will be Saturday.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Be careful not to sign your time or your cash away. Renovations or purchases made for your home will payoff. It won't take much to upset your lover. You must take care not to over exert yourself if involved in sports. Your lucky day this week will be Wednesday.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You can write beautiful love letters this week. Children may be less than honest with you. Rest and relaxation may be required; minor health problems will prevail if you don't watch your diet. Real estate investments will be profitable.

Your lucky day this week will be Monday.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

You can come into money; however, perhaps not under the best circumstances. You might have a problem juggling your time. Do not let the reactions of others get you going. Spend some time with the one you love. Pleasure trips will be satisfying.

Your lucky day this week will be Saturday.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Tips For Getting Back into a Fall Routine

Whether or not you have kids who go back to school or back to campus, getting back to a schedule is tough for everyone. Here are some tips to help you get settled into a routine:

One-stop shop: It can be overwhelming if you're making several different trips to stores for your fresh and grocery, clothing and household items like new Tupperware, water bottles, thermoses and more. Visit a convenient store like the Real Canadian Superstore, where you can buy fresh produce, meat, home essentials, fashionable clothing and more, in a one stop-shop without breaking the bank.

Make a list. Although this might sound like another time-consuming task, it saves time in the long-run. A quick to-do list will help avoid last-minute dashes and can help you better manage your routes and budget so you can group together errands that are close in proximity and prevent splurges.

Meal-prep Sunday: Carve out some time on Sunday afternoon to meal prep for the week. Whether it's getting ahead of school and work lunches or evening dinners, it will help you save hours during the week. You can dedicate a specific dish or day to each family member, so it takes the stress off one individual and lets you enjoy more down time together.

Make a family calendar: With so many hectic schedules and after-school activities, it's important to have one family calendar with everyone's commitments in one spot. This will help ensure no hockey practice or tutoring lesson is missed.

How to help your teen choose a career path

It's normal to worry about what your teen's going to do after high school but remember, they're probably just as nervous as you are, if not more so. Here are some guidelines for helping them make good choices about their future.

SUPPORT BUT DON'T HOVER

Think of yourself as the foundation of your child's support system. Give them the tools needed to make informed decisions but don't attempt to make choices for them. Similarly, teach them how resumes and cover letters work, but don't write them yourself. Let your teen choose and follow their path autonomously.

IDENTIFY THEIR STRENGTHS

As a parent, you likely have unique insight into your child's strengths and abilities. Are they good at organizing their thoughts and presenting them clearly? Do they work better alone? These traits can offer clues as to which potential careers would be a good fit for your teen. You might be tempted to tell your child they'd make a great lawyer but try not to box them in. Instead, help them identify their talents and areas where they can be put to good use.

PUSH PASSION NOT PRESTIGE

Even if you're convinced your child would make a great doctor, don't push them down that path unless they're interested in it. Spending 40 hours a week doing something they're passionate about is a lot easier than spending the same amount of time doing something they don't care for.

In addition to offering your own guidance, encourage your teen to consult a career counsellor in your area. These professionals can provide further strategies for choosing a career path.
